Speaker's profiles

Dr Michal Boyd - RN, NP, ND, FCNA (NZ)

Dr Michal Boyd is a Gerontology Nurse Practitioner and a Senior Lecturer with the Department of Geriatric Medicine at the University of Auckland. She has been a provider, leader and researcher of care management for older people since the early 1990's. In 2011, she led the development of the Ministry of Health's Medicines Care Guides for Residential Aged Care. She is currently co-investigator of the ARCHUS study, an intervention study aimed at integration and support for aged residential care.

Gina Langlands - RN

Gina has been General Manager of Care Services for Bupa NZ, leading quality and compliance, since 2006. She is a state registered nurse and registered sick children's nurse (with Obstetrics). Gina is a member of a variety of New Zealand health and quality committees and has extensive clinical and operational expertise in the aged care sector. She is also the founder of the National Dementia Co-operative initiative

Anne Morgan - CHDB

Anne has been the Practice Advisor for Hospice NZ for the past two years. Previously she has worked for 30 years in Oncology and Palliative Care with the CDHB. She has a strong education background and has recently been the content writer for the Hospice NZ 'Fundamentals of Palliative Care' - a nine module learning package resource to provide palliative care education specifically for the aged care setting. Anne has a particular interest in aged care and in particular the older person with dementia having cared for her own mother with advanced dementia at home for 20 months until her death. She is also involved in a number of National initiatives.

Alan Beasley - CHDB

Alan has been a mental health nurse since 1997. Originating from the UK he came over to New Zealand in 2007. He has worked in the field of dementia since 2005 initially as a nurse on a long stay ward. Since coming to Christchurch he has worked on K1 (dementia assessment ward) until a year ago when he came into the role of dementia educator for R/Ns on the "Walking In Another's Shoes" programme.

Beth McDougall - RN

Beth trained as a registered nurse and has spent all her working career in care of the elderly. She has had a range of role positions from Registered Nurse through to Management. She commenced her new role as Dementia Care advisor for Bupa NZ in December 2011. Beth is passionate about improving life quality for those people with Dementia and behaviours that challenge staff.

Dr Maree Todd - BHB MBCHB FRACP DIP PROF ETHICS

Dr Maree Todd has worked as a geriatrician for the Auckland District Health Board since 1991, and works part time for Bupa in a clinical governance role. Her clinical interests are in ethics, older people's rights and responsibilities, quality healthcare and better medication use. She is currently President of the New Zealand Division of the Australian and New Zealand Society of Geriatric Medicine. When not working she might be found in her yellow kayak or on the tennis court.
